

AT A PARTY YOUR FRIEND SAYS:
THOSE GIRLS LOOK
REALLY DRUNK,
LET'S TAKE THEM UPSTAIRS.

DO YOU LET IT HAPPEN?

Over half of all sexual assaults involve alcohol and it is the number one drug used by perpetrators.

ALCOHOL-
FACILITATED
SEXUAL ASSAULT

WHY DRAW THE LINE

When we look away from sexual violence we make it easier for the perpetrator to continue. Every choice we make and every action we take – no matter how small – has the power to make a difference.

WHEN TO DRAW THE LINE

Lack of consent turns sexual contact into an act of sexual violence. Someone under the influence of alcohol cannot consent because they are no longer aware of their actions. Consent matters. Only a sober 'yes' means yes.

HOW TO DRAW THE LINE

As a bystander you have more than one option to safely take a stand. You can:

Call in your friend: Let him know it's not okay.

Alert the others: Let them know what your friend is planning.

Report it: Flag it and tell someone you trust - a teacher, a principal, a parent/caregiver or elder.
